Event Summary Report

: The institute organized a guest lecture on “Guidance on Scholarship” to create awareness among students about various financial assistance schemes available at state and national levels. The expert speaker explained different scholarship types, eligibility criteria, required documents, and the online application process in a simple and practical manner. Students were guided on important deadlines, renewal procedures, and common errors to avoid during form submission. The session helped learners understand how to apply correctly and make effective use of government and institutional scholarship opportunities. Overall, the lecture was highly informative and beneficial for all participants.
